Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment
Community Services includes Education Peer Support Services.

Our education services play a crucial role in increasing public awareness of mental health topics, equipping individuals with the knowledge and skills necessary to navigate mental health challenges with confidence and compassion. By offering evidence-based training and customized programs, we work to reduce stigma, dispel myths, and foster greater acceptance for individuals impacted by mental health challenges.

In 2024, 1,979 individuals were trained through our workshops. Whether through youth mental health education, professional development for frontline workers, or specialized training for caregivers and families, our programs reinforce our mission to promote mental wellness, prevent crises, and build a more compassionate community.

We believe that mental health support should be accessible to everyone, so our peer support programs are entirely free and open to anyone seeking to improve their mental well-being. Our approach fosters connection, understanding, and encouragement without barriers.

Certified Peer Support Professionals and Licensed Mental Health Counselors facilitate wellness classes and support groups designed for individuals actively working toward mental wellness. Unlike traditional therapy, peer support is built on shared experiences-our specialists have lived experience with mental health challenges and recovery, allowing them to connect with participants in a uniquely authentic and empathetic way. This relatability fosters trust, reduces feelings of isolation, and empowers individuals to take steps toward healing.

What makes peer support particularly impactful is its flexibility and inclusivity. Participants don't need a diagnosis to join-just a desire to work toward well-being. Whether facing stress, anxiety, depression, grief, or simply seeking a supportive community, our peer support groups offer a safe place to support individuals on their personal journeys.

Our services are unique in their diverse range. We provide specialized opportunities for connection and healing through innovative formats such as book clubs, art groups, and wellness-focused activities. Our Creative Aging program brings art to elderly adults who may feel isolated; our ArtAbilities group empowers individuals with intellectual disabilities to express themselves through creativity; our Emotion Explorers program helps preschool-aged children develop emotional awareness, and our teen groups create safe spaces for youth to navigate mental health challenges with peer support. In 2024, we served 471 individuals through these programs, offering a vital source of connection and encouragement.

MHANI's advocacy efforts include our Professional Guardianship Program, which advocates proper medical care and housing for individuals with incapacitating conditions. In 2024, we served 206 individuals.

As court-assigned legal guardians, we advocate for some of our community's most vulnerable individuals, who face mental incapacitation due to conditions such as intellectual and developmental disabilities, age-related disorders, mental illness, dementias, traumatic brain injuries, and chronic conditions. Many of these individuals face significant barriers, including limited financial resources, co-occurring medical and mental health conditions, isolation, exploitation risks, and difficulty navigating complex care systems.

Without the ability to make sound medical decisions independently and lacking available family or friends to assist them, the court appoints MHANI as their legal guardian. We act as their advocates, ensuring that decisions are appropriate, individualized, and aligned with the principle of least restrictive care.

Our services operate 24/7, providing prompt responses to clients' immediate needs. Each guardian collaborates with care providers, medical professionals, and supportive family members to ensure the best possible care. By helping clients build supportive relationships through community programs and services, we reduce isolation and improve overall mental health.

Our professional guardianship services are a voice for the voiceless, protecting individuals from exploitation, neglect, or abuse while ensuring access to essential care and resources. Through strong advocacy, oversight, and compassionate support, we help restore dignity, stability, and hope for those who need it most.
